

Year 6 14 9 18

Notes for next week:

PE is on a Friday and your child will need a school PE kit in school for this day.

Please ensure your child reads every night and also records a detailed comment in their reading record.

The comprehension task for this weekend is 'An interview with Nixie Labs' page 2 and 3.

Maths

This week we have looked at using different strategies for addition and subtraction - empty number lines, partitioning and rounding then adjusting. Can they show you any examples of what they have learnt?

$$2498 + 5 =$$

$$6457 - 3458 =$$

$$745 - 348 =$$

Next week we are looking at multiplication and division; it would be really useful and productive if your child knew all of their timetables!

Spellings for next week

Spellings for the next half term will be based around the statutory spellings ready for SATs:

accident, caught, eighth, heard, minute, possible, strange, accidentally, centre, enough, heart, natural.

Mentor Text for English

Mentor text

Two households, both alike in dignity,
In fair Verona, where we lay our scene, |
From ancient grudge break to new mutiny,
Where civil blood makes civil hands unclean.
From forth the fatal loins of these two foes
A pair of star-cross'd lovers take their life;
Whose misadventur'd piteous overthrows
Do with their death bury their parents' strife.
The fearful passage of their death-mark'd love,
And the continuance of their parents' rage,
Which, but their children's end, nought could remove,
Is now the two hours' traffick of our stage:
The which if you with patient ears attend,
What here shall miss, our toil shall strive to mend.

Can you work out what the text will be about? Which words are no longer used in our everyday English? What do those words mean?

CHALLENGE: Can you translate the text into everyday speak?
