

Year 3 Homework 29.03.19

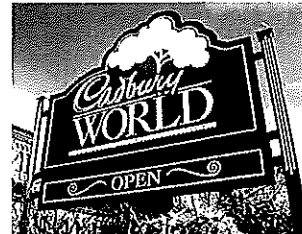

Important reminders:

Homework Project—2nd April 2019 2:30pm
Cadbury World trip - 4th June 2019

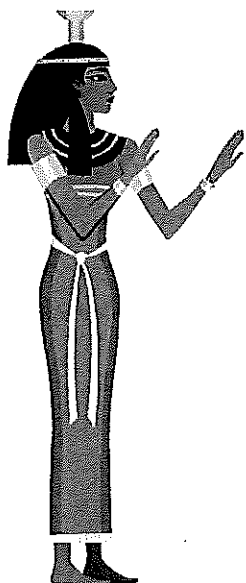

Reminder!

For our first topic in the summer term, we will be learning all about cooking and nutrition as well as fair trade, designing and manufacturing processes and more!

To accompany this learning we are very lucky to be visiting Cadbury World, to take a tour of the factory and take part in an interactive topic talk to discuss the journey of a cocoa bean through history and explore how Cadbury manufacture popular products.

We are excited already!

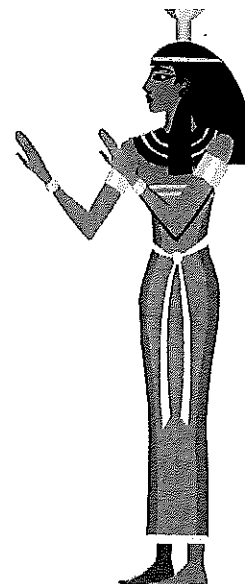

Homework Project—2nd April 2019 2:30pm

The Year 3 classroom will be turned into an Ancient Egyptian museum!

Can you make an Egyptian artefact to go in the museum?

Here are some ideas to get you started:

- A scarab beetle amulet
- A painting in the Egyptian style
- A hieroglyphic message
 - A shabti
- A model of an Egyptian god
- Some Egyptian jewellery
 - The sphinx
 - Canopic jars

There are lots of ideas online and you can use any material you like. The more homemade and creative the better!

Literacy—Mentor text

Over the next two weeks, we will be writing newspaper reports on the traditional tale Rumpelstiltskin. Can you spot all the features of a newspaper report in the mentor text?

- A catchy headline (alliteration/pun)
- Photo and a caption
- An introduction with the 5W's (who, what, where, when, why)
- Key events in chronological (time) order
- Written in columns

The Fairy tale News

PIGS IN PERIL!

Family of pigs struggled to survive yesterday after their house was nearly blown down.

Alfie, Bertie and Charlie, of Pickle Farm House, were left shaking in terror after Mr A. Wolf (30) from Beeston, went on a rampage to get his supper last night at 8:30PM. Now, they feel relieved that they managed to survive but live in fear that the wolf might return!

During the night of the ordeal, the three little pigs clung to each other for comfort while the wolf attempted to blow their house down. Next, they managed to escape through the back door and seek their refuge in the fields behind. Eventually, Mr Wolf became breathless and gave up.

This afternoon at 2:00pm, Bertie exclaimed: "It was the most terrifying experience we have ever had! Consequently, we are worried that Mr Wolf will return with more puff than ever before."

RELIEVED: Alfie, Bertie and Charlie standing in front of the house that the wolf tried to blow down.

Finally, Alfie, Bertie and Charlie pleads for any help in finding Mr Wolf. They urge anyone with information to call Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.
