

Year 2
Theme: Land Ahoy week 1 (06-11-20)

Weekly Maths Tasks Important Continue to learn multiples of 2,3,5 and 10 times tables. Number formation- write number 0-50 in words Write number 0-100 in figures, what do you notice. Write 1 less than 54 32 68 87 95 Write 1 more than 88 16 57 39 94 Subtract numbers using the number line method. 97-15= 68-21= 15-21= 18-8= 43-12= 22-18= 54-14=	Weekly Reading Task Non-fiction Text The life of captain James Cook Internet information who was captain cook Highlight the relevant information, jot them by creating a vocabulary word bank Continuation of reading home reading book and ensure that the reading record is filled in by an adult. Children to read a range of information text. Oxford reading is to be continued https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/for-home/find-a-book/library-page/ to access Read Write Inc reading books
---	--

Writing Tasks

Creative Writing
Write using capital letters, full stops and commas in complete sentences include the words listed below.

Spellings (please continue with these spellings)
Please refer to the words on the red page of their reading record book
I said my you your he me she be the way they are go so not there could make take could

One two three four five six seven eight nine ten eleven twelve thirteen fourteen fifteen sixteen seventeen eighteen nineteen twenty

Project

The project for this term is Land Ahoy children will be looking at the life at sea 100 years again. Pirates. Ships and famous names such as Captain James Cook.

Other useful websites/resources

Listen to an audiobook: <https://stories.audible.com/discovery>

Home Learning Expectations & Date Due

Your homework is due back in school Wednesday 11th November 2020 Please place it in the quarantine box.

Homework will be issued on _Friday week to be returned the following Week